11 July 1952

Mrs. Sidney Johnson
Route 1 - Box 311
Greenville, Mississippi

Dear Mrs. Johnsons:

Reference is made to your letter of 20 June 1952, herewith returned.

A careful search of the Confederate records in the army archives has been made and no record has been found regarding the service of Augustus C. Murff.

The records show that Jerry Murff, name also found as J. M. Murff, a private of Captain H. D. E. Redwine's Company, Locke's Regiment Texas Volunteers, which subsequently became Company E, 10th Regiment Texas Cavalry, Confederate States Army, enlisted 25 September 1861 at Camp Flermy, Texas, aged 20 years.

His name appears on a regimental return of the organization for the month of February 1862 which shows him absent sick at Clarksville.

The company muster roll for March and April 1863 shows him "Absent without leave West Miss. River." No later record of him has been found.

This collection of records is by no means complete, and failure to find the entire record of Confederate military service does not indicate necessarily that an individual did not serve at some period not covered by the records.

The confederate records on file in this office are strictly military in character and rarely show any items of family history and nothing of this nature has been found in the case of J. M. Murff.

It is possible that some information pertaining to J. M. Murff can be obtained from the Comptroller, State of Texas, Austin, Texas.

Sincerely yours,

WM. E. BERGMAN
Major General, USA
The Adjutant General

Windsor, N.Y. April 15th 1864

Dear Genl E. R. Smith, Sir

I beg leave to occupy a few moments of your time while I relate to you my situation and the circumstances which gave rise thereto.
I raised a company for Col. A. M. Donnell's Regiment Cavalry on raising that company I pledged my word & honor as a man, that they should not be dishonored. Those promises were based upon the promises made to me by those who gave me authority to raise the company.
On the 11th day of September 1863, the Regiment was ordered to dismount. This created a considerable excitement in the Regiment. I did all that was in my power to quell the excitement but without effect. My Company urged upon me to comply with my promises to them, but my men was ordered, or seemed determined to resist the order and in defiance of all my exertions they left the detachment and as I felt duty bound to go with them, I did so. I was satisfied that unless I did go with them that they would probably remain out of the service or perhaps seek themselves in the woods as hundreds of others had already done and I feel if I had not have gone with them, they would this day have been in the bush. It was not my intention to evade the service or desert my country in her hour of peril and danger but my object was to return it not with my men without them.

Shortly after I left - I found that Maj General Garnett had issued a General Order of Amnesty to Officers & soldiers then absent without leave, who would return to duty during the existence of the Amnesty.
Accordingly I reported to Brig. Genl. McCallach, Commanding the district in which I lived, and was acting under orders from him dated Oct 24th 1863 when I was arrested. The above facts have all been established by more than one witness before the Court that tried me.
I also pled that as a bar to any further proceedings, but the plea was overruled, yet the order was admitted as evidence of a good character as any man could prove, either as a soldier or citizen.
At the beginning of the difficulty in which our country was involved, I was one of the first to enter the service in her defence, I went forth to assist in fighting her battles and did my duty as a soldier for fifteen long months beyond the Mississippi and in many well fought battles did all that my force for my country, I was with you in at the memorable Battle of Richmond Kentucky, and bore the hardships and toils of all that campaign with you, I have lost many stout-able brothers in this war and have time and again sacrificed my own life for my country.
I have sacrificed pecuniarily all that I possessed (or

As it is a matter of such great consequence to myself, I am obliged to appeal to you, to your sense, & to your hand.
I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
J. M. W. Turner

Or had I ever even expected, any thing like the Mississippi settlement. I had I ever done any thing ~~to~~ ^{or} to give assistance did the enemy then I could only say that even so it could not be too soon.

But surely, for the fact, it is a well known fact, that I have ever done all that was in my power for the great and good cause in which we are engaged, and that the service of a few early days has interested the death of four gallant brothers who fell in the defense of our country. I have seen my wife & children and have not been able to answer their wants for thirty six months, and more than all of this I have tasted my grief in many a well fought blood stained the Mississippi River this was all for my country's right.
And when I consider these things together with the fact that my countrymen are exposed day and night to the enemy in Louisiana and elsewhere, I can well believe that my punishment is already more severe and my very heart's desire is to be with those brave ones that have distinguished themselves in the late battles in Louisiana & elsewhere in order that I may raise my arm and lend my voice in striving for liberty, for Texas and for the South.

New Queen. That I feel a grievous wrong is not to say, and grievously have I suffered it. Surely the public has already done for me in planning.
You have shown every and every other kindness, and I feel an extension of that same mercy to me, whose whole desire is the success of his country.

It is not my desire to weary you with long communications, but I must. This is a matter of the deepest interest to my self & family. You have the power and I am sure you have the goodness of heart, to deal justly, and make into all as they deserve, being fully persuaded that my case will be favorably considered by you, at an early day. I submit the above to you for consideration, and whatever my lot may be I shall acquit to it as fully as possible, and with the ^{best} peace of conscience of the fact that I have my country's good service at heart. I am, with the assurance of the most profound respect, Dear

At the request of A. P. Ballinger Esq.
I have examined the enclosed Communication. I have to say in regard to it, that the facts stated by Mr Ballinger are substantially true. I am confident ^{Capt. Murray} he is a true Southerner, a brave Soldier and anxious to fight for our Cause. Whilst it is not true that he could have escaped from me, yet he believed he could, & never made the attempt. I believe he is willing to re-enter the ranks as a private & serve the Country in that Ca-pacity. With the slight exception referred to, I can fully endorse all said by Mr Ballinger. When I arrested Capt. Murray he was using every effort to gather his Men in Camp to report with them for duty to Brig. Genl. H. E. McCullack When informed that Genl. McCullack was organizing a Regt of deserters & he would be attached to it, if I was ordered to discharge him from arrest, he became highly indignant at the idea that one of his name should be disgraced by such a Connection. He declared in such an event, that he would resign & return to Col. Terrells Regt as a private.

I fully believe Capt. Murray, his Chancellor & the Men will do their duty as soldiers if sent to the Regt. as privates

General E Kirby Smith
Sir

I wish to make a brief statement of my case.

I was detailed by Col B Warner Stone to recruit for his command and succeeded in organizing a company of Cavalry with positive assurance of maintaining Cavalry.
This company was composed of citizens entirely who in mounting themselves dismissed their families in order to equip themselves for the service. I was again detailed by Col Stone to recruit for the command after the assurance of the regiment and received positive orders to recruit regardless of age and that the command should remain mounted. These orders purported to have emanated from Maj Genl C. Heywood and these promises contained in the order give rise to a solemn pledge on my part to my men in raising my company. When the order came to dismount it caused General dissatisfaction in the regiment and the men refused to obey the order in consequence of the pledges previously made to them. I used my influence to induce the men to submit to the order but could not do so. but on the contrary they urged in vain me to make my promises good ~~to~~ continued for their horses.

but when the men could be no longer induced to remain in camp, they saddled and rode off I also went with them for the sole purpose of getting them into the service again. and I will here state that had I not went with them.

that this day at least one half of them would have been out of the service and perhaps sac-rified in the bush, we left camp on the 12th day of September last (1862) and on the 16th same month Maj. Genl. M. G. Meade issued an order of amnesty to all officers & soldiers then absent without leave who wanted return to duty by a certain time, the time was extended to the 31st of October in the district in which I lived. and Brig. Genl. McCulloch (then commanding District) was the officer designated to report to. ~~the~~ Accordingly I reported to him for myself & mine and received order from dated October 24th 1862. under which I was acting when I was arrested.

I was brought to this place and placed in close confinement. and Court Martial I filed the order of Genl. McCulloch as a bar to any further proceedings but the plea was overruled, but it was admitted no witness. I have been here about six months since my trial and has never learned any thing of the result.

Now General this communication is to ask at your hand some relief. I am a poor man and my wife and little ones are destitute of the comforts of life in consequence of my inability to answer their wants in my present condition. I have devoted the whole time of this seven months to the great and good cause of my Country I have sacrificed pecuniary so far as I was able to advance the cause of my Country. I have lost all of my Brother ($4) in the defence of my Country, and I am at this time ready to sacrifice even life itself if it would add to the cause of my Country. I appeal to you then in humanity, name and ask a favorable consideration of my case.
~~That~~ I did Agrippines wrong I do not deny, but I grievously answered it. That I deserved punishment I do not deny, but General has not the Cup already been filled to overflowing. You have the power and you have shown mercy to the heavily guilty. You have the goodness of heart and I ask you to extend that same mercy and clemency to one whose whole desire is the success of his Country. It is a well known fact that I have vindicated myself and tested my zeal for Country are many a well fought field beyond the Mississippi untill worn out by fatigue I was compelled to return home to recuperate my strength. I was with you at the memorable Battle of Richmond (Va) I did not remain at home five days untill I again entered the C.S. service and whatever my lot may be, I have the proud consciousness of knowing that I have rendered valuable services to my Country.

General I now ask to be allowed to assist in in driving the enemy from our soil the my comrades are in the front fighting for Texas and the South and heart's desire is to be with them. I cannot be allowed to resign my command at present. I ask a copy of the findings of the court that tried me this I think I am entitled to.
Now General with the assurance of the most profound respect I have the honor to be your

Houston Dec 7. 1863

General,

A Court martial was ordered to convene here this morning to try Capt. C. S. Murray, about 100 men and others of Col. Terrill's Cavalry Reg^t on charges of desertion & dereliction. With great reluctance I consented to see Capt. Murray and undertake his defence. My vocation being, in part, to aid the accused to obtain their rights, I did not feel at liberty to decline under the circumstances in which the case was pressed upon me. Nearly all the members of the Court having been ordered to the field, it stands postponed indefinitely for their return. I have had several interviews with Capt. Murray. He and over twenty of the Regiment remain in confinement, until the Court can assemble.

General. I would not make a suggestion or request affecting the public service unless I conscientiously believed it would be cheerfully promoted, and felt confidence in my judgment in the matter.

I can not be mistaken in the conviction, that Capt. Murray is a brave soldier and a loyal Southerner. To see and hear him in two minutes would satisfy you of this. A native of Alabama a volunteer at the outbreak of the war. a soldier through Gen. Kirby Smith's campaign in Kentucky. he is the last of five brothers, all the others having fallen in the service. Discharged for disability he came home as soon as his health permitted joined a Cavalry Company intended for Col. Stone's Reg^t but received orders to join Col. Terrill's Reg^t.

The Regiment to which he first belonged (Locke's) was a Cavalry Regt but was dismounted for only 90 days and afterwards permanently retained as Infantry. He and his men greatly preferred Cavalry service, and when the order was read that they should dismount and go to Galveston, I am satisfied he contemplated nothing further, or worse than to manifest strongly their desire not to be changed from Cavalry to Infantry service. No doubt his boldness and frankness most unfortunately, & beyond his expectation, stimulated the discontent of the men. I am satisfied he did not intend or desire to leave the Command, and endeavored to dissuade his men from doing so; but was carried off with them, under the idea that it was honorable to stick to his men. Of course, I am not palliating such conduct, but stating the facts correctly, as I believe them to be. On his way he reported to Col Stone, for whose command his Company had been raised, and requested to obtain a transfer back to his Regt, which Col. Stone undertook to procure. He also reported to Gen. McCulloch, and was on the point of leaving with his men for Genl M's Quarters when arrested by Col Robertson. When Col R. made him sensible that he was regarded as a deserter, and was only to be rec'd in the command as a deserter, and put in a command with other deserters, his indignation and pride were brought out high. He said he would prefer to return and boldly meet any fate, and from that moment, altho' he could easily have escaped, he enlisted Col R. industriously and in good faith, to secure all of his men practicable. Any impression that the men considered themselves Deserters from the Service or that there was disloyalty among them, I am sure, will prove unfounded. Capt Murray is an ignorant man with too much self conceit, warmly attached to his men and they to him, and has been most deplorably carried astray in this matter; but I sincerely believe is now fully conscious of his crime, fully contrite for it, and would make you a soldier to be trusted, and do gallant duty. I am of course fully well aware of the flagrant breach of discipline and duty he has committed. I know too the necessity of examples. But General, let the example commence with some other than a brave and true. Son. Thorne four of whose brothers have died as soldiers in this struggle, and whose spirit is chivalrous and honorable within him to meet the enemy.

^{He is the father of a large family. He is a true son.} As far as I am a judge of men, I venture to assure you, that if you will issue an order permitting Capt. Murray and the other men of Fennell's Regiment who have been guilty of this violation of duty, to make reparation for it in the field, where soldiers are now so much needed, against the enemy, they will do it. For Capt. Murray, at least, I would ~~insure~~ stand severely, as he may answer it before the Court of the Most High.

I shall send this to Col. Robertson to be forwarded to you, approved or disapproved as he agrees with the facts, and chooses to express himself as to its recommendations.
With sincere respects, your old servant,
W. P. Ballinger.

By request I take pleasure in stating that during the few months of last winter that the Citizen Exempto acted as Provost Marshals Guard at this Port Captain Murry then a Prisoner in the Guard house undertook important and arduous service to our guards by keeping a watchful eye on bad men confined in the Prison & reporting on several occasions the pendish doings of those Prisoners. I organized six of these Companies and Co-operation with them in rendering the Guard known of this Port as above, the Captains of these Companies all reported Capt Murry to me as a patriotic and well meaning man & devoted to our Cause. Under such circumstances it has occurred to me that his case should be disposed of in some shape.

General

I hereby tender my resignation of Office as first lieutenant of Co "H" of the 1st Regiment of Artillery voluntarily, because of inability to discharge the duties of Office by reason of ill health, as determined by accompanying Certificate of examining board. My resignation to take effect from this date as the President may deem proper. That I am now in a HOSPITAL,

Sandersville, Georgia April 10th 1864.

William H. Cooper

Of Company "H" 1st Regiment, Cedar Bridge, Georgia Division, has applied for a Certificate and which to ground an application for Discharge Board of Examiners have carefully examined this Officer and find he is not fit for duty in the field or Post consequence of Chronic Nephritis, complicated with Catarrh and Albuminuria.

The effects of which he has suffered for a whole month and been on duty nearly that time.

The doctor declares our belief that he will not be fit for duty in the field or Post for more than a few months.

We assign as particular reasons why this Officer should be discharged as he is in very poor health and the change of discharge may cause him to leave the service suffering.

We therefore recommend that he be discharged.

that he is laboring under Chronic Affection
